

Natalie Zeleznikar, Author of The Scars You Can't See

www.nataliezeleznikar.com Ph: 218-390-2390 Email: nzeleznikar@icloud.com

The Scars You Can't See

Finding Wholeness from the Trauma of Near Death

Natalie Zeleznikar

BOOK COVER, The Scars You Can't See

www.nataliezeleznikar.com Ph: 218-390-2390 Email: nzeleznikar@icloud.com

About Natalie

Natalie Zeleznikar, Licensed Nursing Home Administrator for 30 years, has spent her career serving seniors in an executive leadership role. As an entrepreneur and owner she co-founded a small scale assisted living for her grandma. When diagnosed with Breast Cancer and Sepsis, she returned to her love of writing which began as letter writing to her grandma many years ago. This is her first book. Natalie lives in Duluth, MN with her husband Dan.

“Physical scars are only the surface of who we are. We all have scars in life, and once we rip the bandaid off, the real healing begins. When the scars of life happen, our circle of family and friends become critical. I have been married to my husband for nearly 30 years. Breast cancer changes a marriage, and I am grateful my husband stood by me, to weather the storm. My sons, daughter-in-law, parents, brothers, extended family, girlfriends and community were anchors in my life and for my immediate family. I will be forever grateful for thier support and continual prayers.”

- Natalie Zeleznikar

Book Summary

The Scars You Can't See outlines medical and healing information to support the person with breast cancer to a path for healing. Natalie's story bridges the emotions and healing far beyond the physical scars of surgery. As a spouse, parent, family member or friend, this book will provide a window into the roller coaster of emotions, fears, & sadness a patient faces.

